

My road to high school

Comprehensive schools (Gesamtschulen) in Oberhausen

Fasia-Jansen-Gesamtschule

School profile

Comprehensive learning with sport and culture

Focus areas

Education for sustainability/“School of the Future” seal, teaching respect and tolerance, “School of Culture” seal and talent school with cultural focus, exchange programmes and class excursions, career orientation, separate building for years 5/6, sports classes, 60-minute lesson times

Full-day/support measures

Joint learning – individual support (GLIF), language support, creative breaks with games and sports, lots of clubs and societies, sports helper training for students, tutoring lessons, competitions (“Jugend forscht” youth science competition)

1250 pupils/100 teachers

six classes in level 2

three classes in level 3

www.fasiajansengesamtschule.de

Gesamtschule Osterfeld

School profile

Modern equipment and lesson concepts in a social environment

Focus areas

3x winner of the “Good Healthy School” school development award, sports helper and tutoring training for students, school of culture, “school without racism – school with courage” initiative, award-winning school development workshop

Full-day/support measures

Free elective courses, participation in the “Actively shaping living circumstances” project, digital learning, ritualised school routine, logbook to accompany learning, class representatives and social learning, learning times in levels 2 and 3, competitions, co-operations and exchange programmes

1500 pupils/140 teachers

six–eight classes in level 2

four classes in level 3

www.gesamtschule-osterfeld.de

Gesamtschule Weierheide

School profile

Creative thinking – social conduct – diverse teaching and learning

Focus areas

“Erwachsen werden” and “Erwachsen handeln” adolescence life skills programmes (Lions Quest Quality Seal); firmly anchored in the “We in Europe”, “Education and health”, “Living democracy” and “Cultural education” initiatives

Full-day/support measures

Extensive ability assessment, challenging and encouraging all performance levels, 25 clubs and societies, ecological projects, competitions, co-operations (music school, theatre, clubs, universities, companies...), talent scouting, digital learning platform

1015 pupils/95 teachers

four classes per year group

www.ge-weierheide.de

Heinrich-Böll-Gesamtschule

School profile

The European school in Oberhausen

Focus areas

Language focus: English (including bilingual)/Spanish/Dutch, broad course portfolio at senior level, international student exchange, work experience abroad, talent scouting, youth debating, rich programme for career and study preparation, excursions to other European countries, “promoting diversity” initiative and much more

Full-day/support measures

Reliable full-day programme, diverse projects and societies, challenging and encouraging concept, gentle transition from primary to secondary school because years 5/6 are in a separate building

1360 pupils/105 teachers

six classes per year group

www.hbg-ob.de

Grammar schools (Gymnasien) in Oberhausen

Bertha-von-Suttner-Gymnasium

School profile

School with a cultural, democratic and scientific profile

Focus areas

Certified STEM-friendly school, school of culture (including woodwind and brass class), language certificate (Cambridge, DELF), technology, international student exchange

Full-day/support measures

Half-day grammar school with flexible afternoon supervision, orchestra, choirs, theatre, school library, reading projects, numerous clubs and societies (active democracy group, social group, law group, Bertha Cares...), student sports helpers, student first aiders, student mediators, various sports options, media scouts, homework supervision and motoring concept

970 pupils/90 teachers

four classes per year group

www.bertha-ob.de

Elsa-Brändström-Gymnasium

School profile

Open lessons following the Maria Montessori method, school of culture, talent promotion

Focus areas

Learning times following the Maria Montessori method, profile classes such as woodwinds and brass, talent promotion (individualise – differentiate – connect), reading support, school library, information technology, career orientation, Italian, media studies, economy, ecology, encouraging independence, respect and tolerance

Full-day/support measures

Individual support in core subjects, numerous learning groups and clubs/societies: Music, theatre, art, sport, media and library scouts, student first aiders, student mediators, student sports helpers, chess, international student exchange, language certificates F, E

850 pupils/80 teachers

four classes per year group

www.elsa-oberhausen.de

Freiherr-vom-Stein-Gymnasium

School profile

School motto: reliable, innovative and sustainable

Focus areas

Profile classes: INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY, STEM and MUSICAL; languages: English (year 5 and above) as well as Latin, French and Spanish (year 7 and above); social learning; required electives covering music, art, languages and sciences (e.g. junior engineer academy); media education; career orientation; student exchange; university co-operations

Full-day/support measures

Reliable lessons, lots of clubs and societies, reading club, support lessons, language certificates (Cambridge, DELF, DELE), competitions, guidance concepts, student tutors: media scouts, first aiders, sports helpers, student mentors, homework supervision

1035 pupils/99 teachers
five classes per year group
www.fvs-gymnasium.de

Heinrich-Heine-Gymnasium

School profile

Bilingual, STEM, full-day, learning culture

Focus areas

Bilingual option for 3 subjects up until school leaving examination (Abitur), certified STEM-friendly school, self-learning centre, individualisation of learning (learning time concept), Spanish from year 9, DELF and Cambridge language certificates, Erasmus+, school partnerships with 3 countries, Europe Day, international work experience, competitions, comprehensive media education

Full-day/support measures

Learning times in core subjects, talent promotion, study mentors, iPad courses, 40 clubs and societies (subjects, musical instruments, choirs, performing arts, sport, technology, robots), student media scouts, sports helpers, first aiders

850 pupils/70 teachers
four classes per year group
www.hhg-ob.de

Sophie-Scholl-Gymnasium

School profile

Quality and innovative concepts – promoting the diverse talents and interests of students

Focus areas

BILINGUAL ABITUR, WOODWINDS AND BRASS CLASS, STEM, media education, Reading support, numerous clubs and societies (technology/3D printing/English Theatre/musical/choirs/orchestra), democracy projects, advanced science courses, university co-operations, exchanges to China, France and Ukraine

Full-day/support measures

Support for German, maths and foreign languages (small groups); reliable lessons; self-learning centre; individual guidance through student mentors, supervisors, homework supervision, student sports helpers, student first aiders, guidance team, foreign language certificates (Cambridge, DELE, DELF), competitions in maths, English and art

1200 pupils/95 teachers

five classes per year group

www.ssg-oberhausen.de

Intermediate secondary schools (Realschulen) in Oberhausen

Anne-Frank-Realschule

School profile

... live and learn courageously

Personality development, social learning, new media, inclusion, career orientation, classrooms assigned to teachers, media education, student sports helpers

Focus areas

Multimedia IT, information technology, French, chemistry, biology, technology, social sciences

Full-day/support measures

Remedial and support courses in German, English and maths; flexible full-day programme with afternoon and homework supervision; clubs and societies: sport, black light theatre, media scouts, school road patrols; anti-bullying programme; school choir

800 pupils/54 teachers

five classes per year group

www.afr-ob.de

Friedrich-Ebert-Realschule

School profile

Discovering and promoting talent

Focus areas

Sciences (STEM Realschule), chess school, art

Full-day/support measures

Tutorials in the core subjects German, English, maths; homework supervision; team and method training, flexible afternoon supervision; skiing holiday; chess; sports competitions; environmental projects; music co-operations

955 pupils/55 teachers

five classes per year group

www.fer-ob.de

Theodor-Heuss-Realschule

School profile

Respect and tolerance; living and learning! Sport profile class, cultural learning

Focus areas

Challenging and encouraging students in school, individual pathways based on interests and abilities from year 7

Full-day/support measures

Flexible teacher supervision for afternoons and homework, strengthening methodological skills, skiing holiday

765 pupils/45 teachers

four–five classes per year group

www.thr-ob.de